

	Type of Governor	Co-opted
	Link Role/s	Pupil & Curriculum Attainment & Progress Special Educational Needs & Disability / Pupil Premium Gifted & Talented
	Date appointed	December 2019
Why I became a Governor	The Governor role at Endon Hall is an opportunity to utilise my professional and personal experience to support the school's development and to contribute to the education of all.
The day job!	I am a stay at home parent currently, but a teacher by training. I still like to keep up to date on the latest education news as well as continuing with a range of creative hobbies!
What do I contribute?	I have experience of working in schools operating in very different communities, experiencing and addressing the different challenges involved. I bring a wealth of teaching and leadership experience to the role, having completed the NPQML and NPQSL. I also bring enthusiasm and drive, seeking to make a difference and contribute to a welcoming, high-performing school environment. In my link role of 'attainment and progress' I have specific experience, as part of my leadership qualifications, of leading staff, performing research and using data to support pupils' progress and development.
Do I have children at the school?	Yes.
